Thriving through Innovation and Partnerships

Mike Baca

Mike Baca is the originator and Director of the Mobility Center of Excellence at AmerisourceBergen Corp, a Fortune 30 healthcare services company. The mission of the MCOE is to leverage the power and potential of mobility solutions in support of AmerisourceBergen business goals. Mike also serves as program coordinator for the Bachelor of Information Systems degree program at the Wescoe School of Muhlenberg College where he teaches classes covering foundational and strategic information systems.

Throughout his career, Mike has helped to bridge the gap between people and technology in various roles such as consultant, developer, implementer, technologist and educator. He has strived to apply the promise of new technologies to achieve business goals in a variety of settings from small technology firms to traditional corporate IT domains.
